Kurrajong Scarecrow Festival

This year's Kurrajong Scarecrow Festival was again a great success with attendances estimated at 10,000 or more. This hugely popular free community festival has now been staged for sixteen consecutive years.

The festival is planned and staged by a small committee of volunteers many of whom have been involved for ten years or more. Several members have indicated that they will not be continuing their involvement next year.

To ensure that this wonderful community event continues, we will need a few new volunteers and we are sure that new members will bring with them some new ideas to ensure the ongoing success of the festival.

Anyone who feels that they may have something to contribute, could you please call Peter Ewell on 4572-2938 after business hours.

Finally, a big thank you to all who have contributed and to all the members of the community who have attended and supported the Kurrajong Scarecrow Festival in the past.

If a few volunteers do not come forward to help I regret to advise that there will not be a Festival in 2012. We must start planning the next Festival in February so now is the time to put your hand up.

Yours faithfully

Peter Ewell
